Three Days Later from Europe-Arriwal of the Steamer Humbolt.

New York, March, 1. The muil steamer Humbolt, from Havre and Southampton, arrived at this port this morning. The Europa arrived out from Liverpool on the 18th ult.

The Humbolt brings 65 passengers and $100,000 in gold. Among her passengers is Francis Pulasky, the friend of Kosputh.

Both Houses of the British Parliament met Both Houses of the British Farliament met on the 14th ult. Interrogatories were pre-sented by the Emperor Napoleon to the Brit-ish Government, in reference to some re-marks which were made by Sir Chas. Wood, in a speech which the had recently made at 'Halifer, (England,) in which the conduct of Napoleon was attacked. The complaint was laid before the House of Commons, and Si-Charles being absent, the Earl of Aberdeen and Lord Russell replied, to the effect that Sir Charles had no intention of being personally offensive to the Emperor.

Mr. Cobden called the attention of the Secretary of Foreign Affairs to a letter published in the London Times, written by Earl Edgecombie, in which he states that he has a letter centaining private information of undoubted character, that the Naval armament now preparing in France, are to be eventually employed in a descent upon England .-To this Lord John Russell replied, and said he doubted the correctness of Earl Edgecombie's information, and declared that the re-lations existing between the two govern-ments were of the most friendly character, and that the government had not thought it necessary to remonstrate with France in regard to her naval preparations.

The weather in England was remarkably cold, with heavy snows and sovere frost. Late accounts from Milan represents the late outbreak there as a small affair, and that the ring leaders had been all taken and

The Austrian Government has placed military cordon on the frontier of Switzer-land, and martial law of the most rigorous nature is in force at Milan.

The legislative Chamber was opened at Paris on the 14th, by the Emperor in person, on which occasion he made a speech in which he said he had decided in reducing the army, in order to keep up a friendly under standing with foreign powers, and to prove to the most incredulous, that when France expresses her intention to remain at peace, she must be believed. The army is to be reduced twenty thousand men. The speech was received with greatenthusiasm, and produced a favorable effect on the Bourse, causing a rise in the French rents

CHARLESTON, Feb. 28. The stemer Isabel, from Havana, has arri-

wed at this port.

Mr. King's health was greatly improved since he went to Mantanass. He is fiving on a plantation near Mentanzas, and was trying the sugar house remedy, which was giving him great relief, and strong hopes are now entertained of his recovery.

Among the passengers by the Isabel is Mr. Jones, the private Secretary of Mr. King. bearing dispatches from Judge Sharkey to

The Havana authorities had attached the Washington. Crescent City and Empire City steamers, just as they were about to leave, and opened the mils, to see if the Creoles were corresponding with the fillibusters in the United States. Judge Sharkey had protested against the proceedings, and the Isabel was permitted to leave without having her mails overhauled.
